How do I enrol? You can enrol online at www.oucoursesouthwest.co.uk or call our friendly customer service team on 01752 660713 who will happily take your enrolment.

Entry Requirements There are no specific requirements for this short course.

Course Intent Learn how to create a Christmas hamper filled with gifts that could include jam, relish, pickles and crackers all made on this four week course. There is nothing better than creating personal gifts and can be a great way of saving money.

How will the course be delivered? You will be working with your tutor and other students on a weekly basis, face to face.

Will I need to study or practise outside the classroom? It is always useful to practice your skills between sessions. Your tutor may set some home learning for you to practice.

How will I know I'm making progress? Your tutor will set objectives for each session and give feedback on how you are progressing. You will agree personal targets as part of your Individual Learning Plan (ILP), and you will review your targets throughout the course to check your own progress.

What will I need for the course? The ingredients for the first lesson will be included and after that the tutor will inform what ingredients will need to be purchased for the next lessons.

Please bring a pen and notepad.

Progression Look out for information regarding follow-on courses.

Learning Advisers will be happy to provide you with information of what progression is available. Visit our website at www.oucoursesouthwest.co.uk or contact us on 01752 660713 to make an appointment.

Please note Most courses attract a subsidy from the Education and Skills Funding Agency and can be used to match funding for ESF. It is a requirement of the ESFA that you complete various forms at different stages of your course, further information is available on request. Courses are subject to a minimum number of enrolments and could be cancelled if recruitment is low. In some cases, an alternative class at a different location may be offered.
Room numbers are subject to change - please check when you arrive at the venue.
