Entry requirements This course is for everyone from complete beginners to more experienced artists wishing to try out a new medium.

Tell me about the course This course will cover the essential techniques needed to begin to develop watercolour paintings. You will look at colour theory, how to choose the best materials to use for your desired finished piece and ways to become inspired. You will also explore the use of the paints themselves.

How will I learn? The workshop will be delivered in the classroom through a combination of tutor led activities and practical hands on art work.

How will I know I'm making progress? Your tutor will give you feedback and support throughout the day.

What will I need for the course? Please bring a pen, pencil and notepad. Paints and paper will be supplied.

Progression We have a new selection art courses running this academic year and covering a range of media, you can find more information on our website. . Look out for information regarding follow-on courses. Learning Advisers will be happy to provide you with information of what progression is available.
