Entry requirements This course is suitable for all levels.

Tell me about the course This course is suitable for all levels including beginners, those wishing to learn to paint using a new medium and those wishing to further develop their skills when using acrylics.

You will explore various styles of portraits which can be produced using acrylic paint and learn a range of techniques which can be used to produce these. You will be encouraged to develop your own style of portraiture using the work of other artists as inspiration. The course will give you a good knowledge of the tools and equipment that will support you with painting people.

How will I learn? The course will be delivered through a mixture of taught tutor led sessions and hands on activity.

How will I know I'm making progress? Your tutor will set objectives for the course and you will receive regular feedback on your progress against these.

What will I need for the course? Please bring a notebook and pen to sessions, paper, paint and brushes will be provided however you may wish to purchase your own after the first session, your tutor will provide guidance on how to choose these.

What can I learn next? Look out for information regarding follow-on courses. Visit our website at www.oncoursesouthwest.co.uk or contact us on 01752 660713 to make an appointment

Please Note: Most courses attract a subsidy from the Education and Skills Funding Agency and can be used to match funding for ESF. It is a requirement of the ESFA that you complete various forms at different stages of your course, further information is available on request. Courses are subject to a minimum number of enrolments and could be cancelled if recruitment is low. In some cases, an alternative class at a different location may be offered. Room numbers are subject to change - please check when you arrive at the venue.
