FH09E11A Intro to Art & Design

Master the basics of art and design while exploring the world of Hip-Hop culture in this exciting 10-week course at Oxford House Creative Hub.

Course Description:

Calling all aspiring artists and creative minds! This vibrant BTEC Introductory Award in Art & Design course delves into the foundations of art and design through the dynamic lens of Hip-Hop. Led by passionate tutors at the inspiring Oxford House Creative Hub, you'll gain practical skills in drawing, painting, and mixed media while exploring the artistic movements and social commentary embedded in Hip-Hop culture. Develop your creative confidence and build a portfolio to showcase your artistic journey.

What will I learn? (Weekly Breakdown)

- Weeks 1-2: Introduction to Art & Design Principles - Develop your artistic vocabulary through exploring line, shape, colour, texture, form, and composition.
- Weeks 3-4: Hip-Hop's Roots & Visual Language - Uncover the rich history of Hip-Hop and analyze its impact on visual art forms like graffiti, breakdancing, and fashion.
- Weeks 5-6: Experimentation & Techniques - Hone your drawing and painting skills through a series of practical workshops exploring various techniques and materials inspired by Hip-Hop aesthetics.

- Weeks 7-8: Mixed Media & Creative Expression - Unleash your creativity by delving into mixed media techniques like collage and assemblage, inspired by iconic Hip-Hop figures and themes.
- Weeks 9-10: Portfolio Development & Presentation - Learn presentation skills and curate a personal portfolio showcasing your artistic journey throughout the course.

How will I be assessed?

- Formative assessment: Regular feedback sessions, peer reviews, and practical exercises will help you refine your skills throughout the course.
- Summative assessment: You'll complete a portfolio showcasing your artwork and creative journey, along with written reflections demonstrating your understanding of key concepts.
