Unleash your family's creativity in this fun and engaging workshop, transforming ordinary seashells into vibrant works of art!

Course Description: Calling all ocean enthusiasts and budding artists! This exciting one-day workshop provides a perfect opportunity for parents and children to bond over a creative activity. Explore the wonders of the underwater world through seashells, transforming them into beautiful keepsakes. No prior experience is necessary, and all materials are provided. Let our experienced instructor guide you through the basics of seashell painting, from selecting colours to mastering different techniques. This workshop fosters a love for art and appreciation for nature, creating lasting family memories.

What will I learn?

- Explore the unique shapes and textures of seashells.
- Learn basic colour mixing techniques.
- Discover different painting methods using acrylics.
- Transform seashells into personalised masterpieces.

How will I be assessed?

This course is designed for enjoyment and exploration, with a focus on the creative process.

Formative assessment will be ongoing throughout the workshop, with the instructor providing guidance and feedback to ensure everyone is progressing and having fun.

Who is this course for?

This course is perfect for parents and carers with children of all ages. No prior experience is necessary, making it a fantastic introduction to art and a wonderful family bonding activity.

Progression Opportunities:

After completing this course, families can explore more in-depth art classes, focusing on specific painting techniques or mediums. Many local art centres and community programs offer a variety of options for budding artists.

Career or Job Enhancement Pathways:

While this workshop is primarily for fun, it can be a stepping stone towards various creative fields. Here are some potential career paths that involve artistic skills and expression:

- Arts Education: Inspire future generations by becoming an art teacher.
- Graphic Design: Combine creativity with technology in visual communication.
- Illustration: Bring stories and ideas to life through captivating illustrations.
- Arts & Crafts Professional: Share your passion and expertise by running creative workshops or selling handmade crafts.

How do I enrol?

To apply for this course online at www.oucoursesouthwest.co.uk and simply click on the 'How to Enrol' button and complete the Enrolment Form and one of our customer service team will be in touch or call to speak to one of our friendly Learning Advisors on 01752 660713.

How will the course be delivered?

This is a practical course, and the sessions will include tutor-led demonstrations, learner-led group activities, instruction and repetition. These will form part of the delivery together with one-to-one support as required.

Will I need to practise outside the classroom?

You will be encouraged to review your notes between lessons to ensure maximum benefit from your course. It is always useful to practise your skills between sessions.

How will I know I'm making progress?

During the first session, your tutor will discuss your goals and current level in relation to the course. Based on this assessment, you will agree individual targets which you will record in your individual learning plan (ILP). You and your tutor will review your targets regularly to ensure that you are making progress; these will be written in your individual learning plan.

What will I need?

Please bring a notepad, and pen to each session. You may wish to bring a file for any handouts. A laptop with internet access is required for completion of coursework and home learning outside of the classroom.

Please note:

Most courses attract a subsidy from the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA). It is a requirement of the ESFA that you complete various forms at different stages of your course, further information is available on request. Courses are subject to a minimum number of enrolments and could be cancelled if recruitment is low. In some cases, an alternative class at a different location may be offered.
